The Old Byre is a stunning two storey character conversion of a period barn, finished to a high standard and offering well thought out spacious accommodation designed to complement the period of the building as well as enhance its wealth of inherent character.

The property approaches 2500 sq ft and affords wonderful panoramic views to both the front and rear across adjacent fields with Belvoir escarpment on the horizon. Forming one of only four individual character homes situated within this unique courtyard style setting, occupying a plot which extends to in excess of 0.6 of an acre with generous parking and garage, good size gardens to the rear including a formal garden area leading out onto a grass paddock and a range of timber stables, creating an excellent outdoor space.

Internally the property offers a light and airy atmosphere which is experienced the minute you step into the formal entrance hall which is a superb space with full height vaulted ceiling with exposed king post and truss, flooded with light from two runs of conservation skylights which look down onto an impressive galleried landing spanning the full length of the room with an immense level of character with exposed brick elevations, all creating an initial wow factor. This space is particularly versatile, large enough to accommodate formal dining or additional sitting room, benefitting from a dual aspect with secondary door leading out into the rear garden. Accessed from here are two further reception rooms including useful study/playroom and spacious dual aspect sitting room with attractive fireplace and inset stove. The impressive farmhouse style kitchen has aspects to both the front and rear, appointed with a generous range of bespoke units and ample room for a dining table. There is also a useful ground floor cloakroom.

To the first floor leading off the galleried landing are four double bedrooms, the master with ensuite facilities and there is a separate family bathroom. All of the rooms offer high vaulted ceilings with exposed timbers and the two main bedrooms offer wonderful elevated views to both the front and rear.

In addition the property has neutral decoration throughout and provides an excellent opportunity particularly for families looking for an individual two storey home within a semi-rural setting.

Amenities are available in the nearby village of Langar including a well regarded primary school and further facilities can be found in the nearby market town of Bingham including a range of shops, doctors and dentists, leisure centre, secondary schooling and railway station with links to Nottingham and Grantham. The village is ideally placed for road access to the A46 and A52, A1 and M1.
