A fantastic opportunity to purchase a really interesting, individual, detached chalet style home converted from the property that previously occupied the site into what is now a well thought out and generous home, offering both traditional and contemporary elements, extending to around 2,400sq.ft., tastefully presented throughout and occupying a delightful established plot at the heart of this well regarded Vale of Belvoir village.

Internally the property boasts 3 main reception areas, as well as a stunning open plan living/dining kitchen which links through into an oak frame garden room at the rear, flooded with light having glazed roof and gable end giving the kitchen a dual aspect that, combined, creates a fantastic every day living/entertaining space which will undoubtedly become the hub of the home. Two further receptions provide a great deal of versatility with the main room being a generous L shaped space having attractive solid fuel stove and, again, boasting a dual aspect with windows to the front and rear. The family room/office at the rear could potentially be utilised as a ground floor bedroom but provides a further versatile reception space which leads out into the rear garden. In addition there is a useful utility space and ground floor cloak room leading of an initial central hallway with staircase rising to an attractive galleried landing above, with skylights looking out across the garden and elevated views across to the village church spire.

To the first floor there are 4 bedrooms, 3 being generous doubles, the master benefitting from ensuite facilities, and separate contemporary wet room. Each of the rooms offer their own individual features and elements creating a truly bespoke property.

In addition the property offers double glazing, gas central heating, under floor heating to the majority of the ground floor and tasteful decoration throughout.

As well as the internal accommodation the property occupies a delightful plot set well back from the lane behind an established frontage with an excellent level of off road parking and access to an attached single garage. The rear garden offers a good degree of privacy being well stocked with an abundance of trees and shrubs, having numerous seating areas, ornamental pond, vegetable plot at the foot and useful timber store which overall creates a delightful outdoor space.

Overall viewing is the only way to truly appreciate both the location and accommodation on offer.

MUSTON

There is a public house/restaurant in Muston and further facilities are available in the adjacent village of Bottesford including primary and secondary schools, several public houses and restaurants, railway station with links to Nottingham and Grantham from where there is a fast rail link to London's Kings Cross in just over an hour and there is a daily bus service to the Grammar Schools in Grantham. The A52, A46 and A1 are also close by providing excellent road access. There are local walks along the Grantham canal and pretty Vale of Belvoir countryside which links to nearby picturesque villages, many of which offer highly regarded public houses and restaurants. The village is a stone's throw away from Belvoir Castle which holds events and shows throughout the year. Muston also boasts 'Muston Meadows' which is understood to be one of the finest lowland meadows in England, extending to approximately 41 hectares offering a haven for local wildlife and plants.
