An impressive well-proportioned detached former farmhouse which has been tastefully restored and refurbished throughout offering a sprawling level of internal accommodation approaching 4,000 sq ft and available with no upward chain.

The property offers a considerable level of character which begins with its aesthetically pleasing bay fronted facade behind which lies a substantial level of versatile accommodation perfect for large or extended families particularly making use of the attached two storey annexe.

The accommodation comprises an initial entrance hall which leads through into two main reception rooms including a substantial drawing room with dual aspect, bay window to the front, open fireplace and access out into the rear garden. In addition there is a spacious open plan dining kitchen which has been appointed with a range of bespoke oak fronted units and granite work surfaces., this in turn links through into a useful laundry with ground floor cloaks. To the first floor are five double bedrooms and three bath/shower rooms.

Attached to the rear of the house is a substantial two storey annexe which provides approximately 500 sq ft of additional accommodation, perfect for teenagers or extended families, or even utilised as a home office. This area comprises a generous ground floor reception space with staircase rising to a double bedroom and ensuite.

The property occupies a delightful position at the heart of this highly regarded conservation village overlooking a central paddock to the front, with enclosed courtyard style garden to the rear which has been designed for low maintenance living with electric gate access leading onto a substantial blockset driveway and double garage with attached store.

Overall this is an excellent opportunity to acquire a unique individual home on a pleasant low maintenance corner plot benefitting from the aesthetics expected from a Period home with the advantages of a modern contemporary interior.

Whatton lies on the edge of the Vale of Belvoir and has its own village hall. Further amenities can be found in the adjacent village of Aslockton including well regarded primary school, public house, post office/shop and railway station with links to Nottingham and Grantham. Additional amenities can be found in the nearby market town of Bingham and the village is bypassed by the A52 which provides good road access to the A46, A1 and M1.
