An excellent opportunity to purchase a delightful period cottage, forming one of a handful of terraced homes understood to date back to the 1700s, which has seen a recent programme of thoughtful renovation and modernisation, bringing it up to modern standards.

The property offers an archetypal cottage facade with attractive multi paned double glazed windows and composite door beneath a pantiled roof with painted brick elevations behind which lies a versatile level of accommodation with a great deal of character.

The property is set well back from the road behind a well maintained, enclosed, frontage which benefits from a southerly aspect and provides a delightful outdoor seating area. To the rear of the property is off road parking for approximately three vehicles as well as a useful timber storage shed.

Internally the cottage offers accommodation approaching 800 sq.ft. which is beautifully presented throughout, having a spacious main reception that provides both a living and dining area with an attractive solid fuel stove and engineered oak flooring. Leading off a central hallway is a useful enclosed courtyard garden and a further internal door leading into a beautifully appointed breakfast kitchen fitted with a generous range of units and integrated appliances with a useful utility and ground floor cloak room off. To the first floor there are bedrooms and a central, contemporary, shower room all tastefully presented in neutral decoration and benefitting from gas central heating.

This is a delightful, fascinating, period cottage located in this well regarded Vale of Belvoir village within walking distance of the wealth of local amenities and services and overall viewing comes highly recommended to appreciate both the location and accommodation on offer.

BOTTESFORD

The village of Bottesford is well equipped with local amenities including primary and secondary schools, a range of local shops, doctors and dentists, several public houses and restaurants, railway station with links to Nottingham and Grantham which gives a fast rail link to London's Kings Cross in just over an hour. The A52, A46 and A1 are also close by providing excellent road access.
