A rare opportunity to purchase a beautiful detached period home occupying a central village location on a secluded, established and manageable plot with a delightful aspect across to the pretty village church in the heart of this highly regarded and much sought after village.

This wonderful character home has seen a recent programme of thoughtful renovation and modernisation, combining both traditional and contemporary elements and affording an excellent level of internal accommodation which lies in the region of 2,400 sq.ft. The property offers a light and airy feel with high ceilings, deep skirtings, attractive fireplaces, sash windows to the front elevation and each room offering its own individuality.

The property boasts up to five bedrooms and four reception areas as well as a spacious dining kitchen modernised with a generous range of wall, base and drawer units finished in heritage style colours with quartz preparation surfaces and high quality integrated appliances. In addition there is a useful utility room and ground floor cloak room. The four main receptions comprise a useful study area which links through into an attractive snug with pitched ceiling, a well proportioned living/dining room and separate sitting room, both of which benefit from pleasant aspects into the garden.

To the first floor, leading off a split level landing, are up to five bedrooms, one of which is currently utilised as a generous dressing room off the master suite which comprises and attractive double bedroom with walk in bay window and ensuite facilities. There is a separate, well proportioned, and tastefully appointed family bathroom which has been upgraded with a traditional style suite.

From the road side Beverley House is an unassuming, deceptive, home but when approached from its main facade it becomes more apparent that there is a significant level of accommodation perfect for growing families looking for an individual home within a delightful setting.

As well as the internal accommodation the property occupies a pleasant plot with a secluded main garden to the front which benefits from an aspect across to its pretty facade, having a central lawn and paved terraces and an additional, enclosed garden, at the rear as well as an integral garage which provides secure parking or workshop space.

Overall this is a beautiful, well thought out and appealing home with viewing coming highly recommended to appreciate both the location and accommodation on offer.
