A charming Victorian stone and brick built semi-detached two bedroom cottage, with Planning Permission now granted for a superb first floor extension, to make four Bedrooms and a balcony.

The spacious living accommodation is refurbished to a high standard throughout, outside there are spacious and secluded gardens. The cottage is located in this delightful and well served village, within commuting distance of Newark, Lincoln, Grantham and Nottingham. Built of local Ancaster stone, and brick, this delightful cottage has living accommodation benefiting from an oil fired central heating system and uPVC double glazed windows. Internally, the property is decorated and presented to a high standard with bespoke fittings.

The cottage offers the following living accommodation: open plan living and dining kitchen featuring bespoke-made free standing French kitchen units, Hereford brown flagstone floor and from the dining room contemporary design aluminium framed French doors lead to the patio terrace and rear garden, also there is a utility room and WC, rear hallway/boot room with solid oak Stable door leading to the rear garden. This area could also be used as a work from home space if required. The Bathroom has a boutique style design and a bespoke suite including high cistern WC and a 16 gauge handcrafted copper Slipper bath. The lounge has a delightful brick arch fireplace with arch opening to the dining room featuring an original restored cast iron range with open grate, hob plate, kettle stand and bread oven, the front entrance hall has a staircase leading to the first floor and landing. The master bedroom has a superb full height vaulted ceiling and gallery with access ladder and Bedroom Two is a lovely double room overlooking the rear garden.

Planning permission is now granted for a superb first floor extension, which if developed, will make 4 bedrooms and a balcony.

Outside, to the frontage, there are centre opening wrought iron gates leading to a gravelled driveway. The rear garden is enclosed and secluded allowing a good degree of privacy and is laid out with lawned areas, a variety of trees and cottage style borders. Additionally, there is a patio terrace to the rear of the house with decking and a further stone paved patio terrace with pergola over which forms an outdoor kitchen/barbeque area.

This cottage would make an ideal home for a professional couple, young family or those looking to downsize from a larger home seeking a character property within commuting distance of the major centres.

Leadenham is a delightful Lincolnshire Cliff village situated within commuting distance of Newark, Lincoln, Sleaford and Grantham. The village is populated with a variety of properties including charming period homes built with the local Ancaster stone. Village amenities include a post office, petrol station with convenience and country store and the Leadenham Church of England Academy for pupils from 2-11 years. Just one mile away, in the neighbouring village of Welbourn, is the Sir William Robertson Academy, which is a secondary school for pupils 11-18 years and rated good by Ofsted. The neighbouring village of Fulbeck has the popular craft centre which holds monthly Artisan fairs and the Hare & Hounds pub. A short drive away is the village of Navenby which has take-aways, two pubs, a Co-Op store and bakery. Nearby Newark has great shopping facilities including an M&S food hall. Additionally, there are Morrisons, Asda, Waitrose and Aldi supermarkets. Newark Northgate Railway Station has fast trains connecting to London King's Cross with journey times of approximately 75 minutes. The City of Lincoln and towns of Sleaford and Grantham are also within commuting distance. The Cliff Villages, including Leadenham, are served by a bus service connecting Lincoln and Grantham. The beautiful surrounding countryside offers lovely walks along footpaths, fields and country lanes.
