- Iconic Grade II* Listed Building
- Use Class E Retail/Offices/Cafe
- Upper Floors 2360 sq.ft Approximately
- Prime Market Place Location
- Ground Floor 832 sq.ft Approximately
- EPC Exempt

An iconic Grade II* listed building with prominent frontage to Newark Market Place, offered for sale freehold. The property provides premises suitable for Class E Use including retail, cafe or offices.

The ground floor space, with double display windows, provides 830 sq.ft. Additional first floor and second floor former offices provide an additional 2360 sq.ft approximately.

The property is located within the corner of Market Place and White Hart Yard, with frontage to the busiest trading area in Newark Town Centre. Occupiers in the vicinity include Boots, TUI travel agents, W H Smith, Works and Bon Marche, amongst many other national and local retailers.

The Georgian Market Place, with many fine buildings, is a significant tourist attraction to the area. The nearby 12th Century Castle, riverside areas, St Mary's church and the National Civil War Museum are local features.

Newark is a sizeable Market Town with a residential population of 25,000, together with a catchment area giving a population of 113,000 approximately. The area is placed reasonably centrally in the UK and is well placed for access to the A1 for commuting North and South. Newark is on the main East Coast railway line with regular railway services to London King's Cross with journey times just over 75 minutes.

The offices are accessed from the archway and Olde White Hart Yard.
