A delightful semi-detached period three bedroom cottage situated in the delightful and well served village of Stathern. The property has a pleasant location with the convenience of an integral single garage and a lovely enclosed garden to the rear.

The cottage requires modernisation and the living accommodation includes entrance porch, WC, dining kitchen, open plan lounge and dining room which is part divided by a stone fireplace housing a wood burning stove and has rear facing French doors giving access to the enclosed garden. A doorway leads to the staircase which rises to the first floor, a landing, three comfortable bedrooms and a bathroom.

Ideal for a couple or a family seeking a property with character situated in a village location with good amenities. While the cottage requires modernisation it offers living accommodation with charm and character and viewing is highly recommended.

Stathern is a thriving village community with local facilities including a highly regarded primary school which currently has an outstanding Ofsted report, Londis convenience store, The Plough which is a quintessential village pub serving food, village hall, Stathern garage and the adjoining coffee shop/cafe serving coffee, cakes and a range of hot and cold food. Attached to the cafe is a convenience store selling newspapers, sweets, household essentials and seasonal fruit and vegetables. Further facilities can be found nearby at Bottesford and the market towns of Melton Mowbray, Bingham and Grantham and from Grantham there is a high speed train to London King's Cross with a journey time in the region of 75 minutes. The village is also convenient for connections to the A52 and A46 to Nottingham and Leicester with links to the A1 and M1.

The property comprises a semi-detached, two storey period cottage with later extensions constructed of brick elevations with slate and pantile roof coverings and flat roof to the extension. There are wood framed single glazed windows and the central heating system is gas fired. There is an integral single garage and storage shed.
