A barn inspired conversion providing practical spacious and well planned accommodation all on a convenient single floor level. Situated within the Brant Broughton conservation area, the property has a substantial frontage with an archway entrance, car port and a detached garage. A particular feature of the property is the small enclosed and walled rear garden offering complete privacy and seclusion. Converted and restored some years ago the property is well maintained, nicely decorated, and well presented throughout. Central heating is from an oil fired Stanley kitchen combined cooking range, the property is double glazed.

The accommodation in summary provides an entrance porch, hall and corridor, lounge with wood stove and patio doors to the conservatory, open plan kitchen and dining area, cloak room and office. Bedroom accommodation is conveniently divided from the living accommodation with a corridor. There are three good sized bedrooms and a bathroom. Wrought iron entrance gates and the archway give access to the gravelled driveway, car port and brick built garage. The total floor area internally is 1,100 sq. ft approximately.

The village of Brant Broughton is situated approximately 8 miles east of Newark and conveniently located for commuting also to Lincoln and Grantham. There is access to the A17 from the village and convenient access points to the A1 and A46 trunk roads this side of Newark. East Coast rail services from Newark Northgate and Grantham Station to London King's Cross are available with journey times of just over 75 minutes.

The entire village of Brant Broughton is designated a conservation area. There is a delightful array of character properties both stone and brick built, fronting the village high street. Country lane walks and short drives to the Lincolnshire Ridge and Stapleford Woods area are within close proximity. Village amenities include a primary school, the Generous Briton public house known as a country house, and there is a bus stop conveniently situated close to the property. A focal point of the village is the magnificent St Helen's Church dating from the 13th Century and described as having one of the most elegant spires of Lincolnshire.
