Rose Farm comprises a detached house, a range of modern general purpose farm buildings, and land within a ring fence extending to 44.9 acres or thereabouts. The property is situated on a country lane, close to the small village of Norton Disney. The land generally a light sandy loam in character is ideal for equestrian purposes.

The farmhouse built in 1967 is exceptionally well maintained and nicely decorated throughout. Constructed of cavity brick elevations under a tiled roof, the property has a solid fuel central heating system and double glazing throughout. The accommodation briefly provides a front porch, reception hall, separate dining room and kitchen. The first floor provides three bedrooms, a box room and family bathroom. There are gardens surrounding the property.

The agricultural buildings comprising modern general purpose and stock buildings, provide a gross internal area of 1,470 sq. m (15,800 sq. ft) approximately. There is a three phase electricity supply.

The holding is registered with the Rural Payments Agency, more recently used for sheep grazing and fodder crops.

The Parish of Norton Disney is located close to the Lincolnshire and Nottinghamshire border, 2 miles east of the A46 Fosse Way. Within the immediate vicinity of the property are scattered a number of cottages and a school. The central point of the village is the Grade I Listed Church, the village also supports a public house known as The Green Man, well known as a traditional village pub and restaurant. Norton Disney is steeped in character and a history dating back to the feudal times. It is well known for its links with the Disney family and Walt Disney personally visited the village in 1949, whilst filming the Disney film 'Treasure Island'.

The historic town of Newark on Trent is just 6.5 miles from the property. The town lies on the main East Coast railway line providing services between London and Edinburgh. Fast trains are capable of journey times from Newark Northgate to London King's Cross in just over 75 minutes. The city of Lincoln just 10 miles to the north provides university education. There are local primary schools nearby at Collingham, Thurlby, Winthorpe and Bassingham. Private schools are at Highfields Preparatory at Newark and The Minster High School at Lincoln.
