A well-presented Victorian mid-terrace home, conveniently situated within approximately one mile of Newark Town Centre and under half a mile from Newark Northgate Railway Station. The property offers well-proportioned accommodation retaining its period charm, which is arranged over two floors and would be ideal for first-time buyers, commuters, or those looking for a character home in a practical and well-connected location.

The ground floor comprises an entrance hall with a useful WC, a fitted kitchen with a rear door providing access to the enclosed garden, and an open-plan living and dining room creating an excellent everyday living space. To the first floor there is a landing, two double bedrooms, and a spacious bathroom.

The property further benefits from uPVC double glazed windows and gas central heating, served by a modern Worcester Bosch Greenstar boiler.

Outside, the rear garden is designed for low maintenance and is predominantly paved, providing a pleasant patio terrace ideal for seating and entertaining. There is also a timber constructed summer house, offering useful storage or a relaxing garden retreat.

Beacon Hill Road is well placed for access to Newark Town Centre and Newark Northgate Railway Station, which can be reached via a convenient sheltered walkway, in under half a mile. The station provides fast rail connections to London King's Cross in around 75 minutes, making this an excellent choice for those requiring regular access to the capital, while the nearby A1 and A46 offer straightforward road connections to Nottingham, Lincoln and further afield.

Viewing is highly recommended.

Newark is a thriving and historic market town offering an excellent blend of character, convenience and connectivity. The town is well known for its attractive Georgian Market Square, which hosts regular markets and events, and is surrounded by a wide variety of independent retailers, high street names and everyday amenities.

For shopping and day-to-day convenience, Newark offers a strong selection of supermarkets and services, including M&S Food Hall, Asda, Morrisons, Waitrose and Aldi. The town centre also provides a great choice of cafes, bars and restaurants, ranging from well-loved independents to familiar names such as Starbucks and Costa. Newark has also recently welcomed a Waterstones bookshop, complementing the town's already impressive range of independent and charity bookshops.

The town is well served by a range of primary and secondary schools, alongside healthcare facilities including Newark Hospital, making it an ideal location for families, professionals and downsizers alike.

This bay fronted mid-terrace Victorian house is likely to date from around 1900 and is constructed of brick under a concrete interlocking tiled roof covering. The central heating is gas fired and there are UPVC double glazed replacement windows. The living accommodation is arranged over two levels and can be further described as follows.
