LOCAL AREA & AMENITIES

Newark on Trent is a historic and thriving market town situated just off the A1/A46/A17 with a superb range of historic landmarks and buildings centered around the stunning Newark Castle, beautifully positioned on the banks of the River Trent. This new community of high-quality luxury homes are conveniently located on the outskirts yet still within easy walking distance from the vibrant town centre, making The Avenues simply the perfect place to set up home.

For the keen shopper Newark has an enviable mix of retailers, ranging from high street brands through to smaller 'boutique' style retailers tucked away in some of the quaint parts of the town. This all complemented by a range of coffee shops and cafe's offering plentiful choice for some welcome down time. Perhaps try a visit on market day and experience the hustle and bustle of the busy market square and sample some fresh local produce from a whole host of market vendors. Add all of this to a great selection of leading supermarkets within the town and your every need will be catered for.

When it comes to leisure time, Newark has a superb selection of options to choose from. This ranging from first class gyms and leisure centres to a number of local parks that include children's playgrounds and on-site cafes, perfect for relaxing and whiling away a few hours. Newark also has a great choice of bars and restaurants, so if you're looking to enjoy a meal with friends and family or just a night out on the town, there's something for everyone.

For those wanting to explore just a little further afield, Sherwood Forest and the legendary attraction of Robin Hood are just a short drive away, perfect for a family day out.

Historic Lincoln is always worth a visit. Just a short drive or train journey away. For those that seek the bright lights of the big city, then try a visit to Nottingham, just a 30 minute train journey puts you right in the heart of things.

Newark benefits from direct mainline connectivity to London Kings Cross, with fastest journey times of 75 minutes. The East Coast mainline also connects directly to Doncaster, Leeds, Peterborough, Newcastle and Edinburgh, perfect for those with family, work or social connections north and south.
