A kitchen sink with a chrome faucet is in the foreground. The sink is set into a dark countertop. To the right of the faucet, there are two bottles of cleaning products: a white bottle of Tesco Extracts Multi-Purpose Kitchen Handwash and a green bottle of Tesco Extracts Multi-Purpose Kitchen Handwash. The background features a window with a view of a suburban neighborhood with houses and trees under a blue sky with white clouds. The window frame is white. A small silver cup is on the windowsill. The wall behind the sink is covered in white square tiles.

The property is entered via a private front door off of the communal hallway. The front door opens in to a light and airy central corridor that leads to the living accommodation and private quarters. On the right hand side of the apartment is the living/ dining area with a set of large double doors that open inwards as part of the Juliet balcony. The kitchen is accessed via the living area and has fitted appliances. At the opposing end of the apartment is the two bedrooms & accompanying bathrooms. Bedroom one has a pretty outlook over Broxbourne common, built in wardrobes with sliding-mirrored doors, as well as an en-suite with showering facilities. Bedroom two and the family bathroom are both accessed via the central corridor, which is where the two storage cupboards can also be found.

The View out of the fourth floor flat is South towards London and has an open vista that changes daily and at night you see the great metropolis in the distance. From the communal foyer there is lift access to the fourth floor. The property is to be sold CHAIN FREE.

Ravenscroft is ideally situated with a short walk to Broxbourne Station with the fast railway service to London's Liverpool Street Station. the local shops provide for every day living needs and Lea Valley Regional Park is a short walk away.
