

An aerial photograph of Trinity House, a modern apartment building with a flat roof and light blue facade, situated in Harrogate. The building features a rooftop terrace with glass railings. To the left is a traditional stone building with a tiled roof and a dormer window. To the right is a historic stone building with arched windows. A large green tree stands in front of the modern building. The street below is paved and has some colorful bunting strung across it. The background shows more residential buildings and greenery under a clear sky.
