

An aerial photograph of a city street in Harrogate. The central focus is Trinity House, a modern building with a flat roof and light blue upper floors. It has a ground-floor storefront with large windows and a sign that reads 'body care'. To the left is an older building with a grey tiled roof and a dormer window. To the right is a grand, multi-story stone building with classical architectural features. A large, leafy green tree stands in front of Trinity House. A red awning is visible on the left. The street is paved and has some colorful bunting strung across it. The sky is clear and blue.
