This very attractive detached cottage has recently been extensively improved, thoughtfully re-designed and finished to an exceptionally high standard throughout, while retaining many characterful features. The property occupies a lovely quiet setting on the fringe of a poplar village, benefitting from an established private garden and driveway providing plenty of parking.

KEY FEATURES

- Entrance porch opening to both the living and dining areas, with a staircase to a light and spacious landing
- Impressive open plan kitchen/dining room with glazed double doors onto the rear garden
- Beautifully fitted units to the kitchen, complete with integrated appliances, Quartz work surfaces, and island unit with induction hob and downdraft extractor
- Useful under stairs store/utility room connecting to the cloakroom
- Separate living room with views to front and built in cupboard
- Master bedroom and well-appointed en-suite shower room
- A further two bedrooms, one large double and a single, and a stunning family bathroom with shower
- uPVC double glazed windows and gas fired central heating
- Private landscaped rear garden, laid to lawn with paved terrace, planted borders and gated access to side
- Extensive driveway providing parking for multiple vehicles, as well as a fenced area with concrete base providing space to erect a garage if required
- A very quiet and convenient location, tucked away on the fringe of the village, a short distance from beautiful countryside walks, Pontesford Hill and less than a mile from Pontesbury's excellent range of amenities. Shrewsbury town centre is also less than a 15 minute drive
- This property has been recently fully renovated and is sold with no upward chain
