Occupying a fantastic position, tucked away at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, this traditional end of terrace house has been extended to provide spacious and versatile accommodation over three floors, while benefitting from a good-sized private garden, a lovely outlook, and driveway parking.

KEY FEATURES

- Entrance hall with useful storage and turning staircase to landing
- Living room with feature fireplace and double doors to the extended dining room with has windows and further glazed doors onto the rear garden
- Separate study/family room, providing a versatile space to be used as a home office or additional reception room
- Fitted kitchen with access to the side hall, which connects to the front driveway, ground floor shower room and store/boot room
- On the first floor are three double bedrooms and a re-fitted family shower room
- A second staircase leads to the converted loft which now provides a light and spacious landing, large loft room and access to eaves storage. This space could easily be used as additional bedroom accommodation, although panning permission has not been obtained
- Good sized private rear garden, mainly laid to lawn with paved terrace, established plants and trees, and gated access to the side
- To the front of the property is a driveway providing parking for at least two cars, as well as additional lawned gardens
- A great location within a quiet and popular residential area, just a short distance from some excellent amenities, primary and secondary schools, road links, and less than two miles from the town centre
