A rare opportunity to acquire a larger style, period mid terrace situated in the heart of Cheadle Village. Adjoining commercial properties the property lends itself to office/retail, subject to obtaining the relevant change of use. The property is in need of comprehensive refurbishment and offered for sale with no onward vendor chain. The accommodation comprises of an entrance hallway, living room with square bay window, dining room, ground floor shower room and a large kitchen to the rear. Off the entrance hallway is access down to two cellar chambers which have potential to be converted subject to obtaining planning permission. To the first floor there are four bedrooms served by a centrally positioned bathroom. Externally, there is a courtyard rear garden with garden room providing additional storage space.
