Stanford in the Vale is an appealing and thriving downland village in the arresting Vale of the White Horse forming part of West Oxfordshire, famous for its ancient prehistoric chalk horse on the North Wessex Downs where, it is also believed, St George slayed the dragon. Situated midway between the market towns of Wantage (6 miles) and Faringdon (5 miles), easily accessible from the A417, the village itself caters for day-to-day needs with a gastro pub, church, Co-op supermarket, post office, excellent primary school, pre-school and village hall. Both Wantage and Faringdon offer a further comprehensive range of shopping, leisure and recreational facilities as well as a variety of regular markets and in addition there is a pleasing variety of restaurants and gastro pubs within the surrounding area. The city of Oxford (16 miles) and the commercial centre of Swindon (15 miles) are easily accessed via the A420. Oxford and Didcot (17 miles) have mainline train services to London (Paddington) in under 1 hour. There is an excellent selection of both state and private education within the locality including Radley College, Abingdon School, St Helen & St Katherine and The Manor Prep, Cokethorpe, St Hugh's, Ferndale Prep, and St Edward's. Well regarded comprehensive schools at Wantage and Faringdon. Heathrow (64 miles), Bristol (62 Miles) and Birmingham Airports (74 miles) are each around 1 1/2 hours away.
