LOCATION

Steventon is an attractive and sought after village, situated south of Oxford between the market towns of Abingdon c.4 miles, Didcot c.4.5 miles and Wantage c.7 miles. There has been a settlement on the current site of Steventon for over c.1000 years, currently the population is c.1500. Notably the attractive village 'Causeway', nearly a mile long, runs northeast to southwest the length of the village starts by the Green in the east and finishes at the Church in the west. The village itself has excellent local amenities and benefits from a C of E primary school, pre-school, village hall, central sports field and a Co-op supermarket, church and three popular village inns. Excellent selection of schools in the local area. Heathrow Airport c.1 hours. Outdoor pursuits locally include golf courses Frilford Heath and Carswell and equestrian centres at Harwell, Gainfield and Blewbury. Steventon is well placed for the extensive Milton Business Park and for fast route access to the A34 Oxford c.12.9 miles/M40 North and Newbury c.18 miles M4 South. Didcot is also close at hand to the east and has a main line train station to London Paddington c.45 mins. There is also a regular bus service operating to and from the village.
