LOCATION

West Challow is an attractive peaceful downland village which together with the sister village of East Challow lie to the west of Wantage in the heart of the Vale of White Horse. The village benefits from a number of period properties, village hall and church. West Challow is well placed for access to Oxford, Swindon, Wantage, Faringdon and Didcot, with easy access via the main arterial route of the A420 to the M4 and the A34 to M40. Regular fast trains serving Paddington can be found both at Didcot and Swindon. In addition a regular bus service runs from Wantage to Oxford. Wantage is an attractive market town renowned for its association with King Alfred the Great whilst being situated at the foot of the ancient Ridgeway trail and Lambourn Downs, offering a comprehensive range of amenities, including shopping, leisure, health, banks, Post Office and recreational facilities, as well as a library, museum, various coffee shops, bistros, gift and clothing boutiques, pubs, restaurants, community clubs and organisations as well as the popular weekly market in the square itself and regular farmers' market. There is also a good selection of primary and secondary education within the town itself in addition to the Abingdon and Oxford schools.

DESCRIPTION
