LOCATION

North Fawley is a small, rural village just across the Berkshire/Oxfordshire border, in the region around Wantage. Nestled on the edge of the rolling hills of the North Wessex Downs Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, it combines tranquil countryside views with a tight-knit community feel. The area has historic roots: its parish of Fawley includes ancient settlements and significant heritage buildings, including St Mary's Church with parts dating back to the twelfth century. Though the village is relatively quiet, it offers a good quality of life for those who enjoy rural living, access to footpaths, local roads, and still want to be within reach of larger centres like Didcot, Wantage, or Oxford for amenities.
