

221 Church Street

Hilperton Trowbridge BA14 7RG

A stunning, stone-faced, four-bedroom Georgian home with abundant period features, situated in the sought-after village of Hilperton near St. Michael's Church, the Lion & Fiddle Pub, a primary school, village hall, and recreation ground. This beautifully presented and extended family home offers deceptively spacious accommodation, including high ceilings, solid wood and flagstone floors, decorative paneling, feature fireplaces, sash windows with shutters, a Rayburn stove, an entrance hall, two well-proportioned reception rooms, a stunning orangery/breakfast room with bi-fold doors opening to the garden, a modern shaker-style Heritage kitchen with solid wood doors and stone-effect composite work surfaces, a cloakroom, family bathroom, and a large attic room/studio. Outside, the property features a walled courtyard adjoining the orangery, steps leading to a cottage-style garden with a large lawn area, a garden shed, and well-stocked shrub borders. To the side is a block-paved tandem driveway accommodating two vehicles. Viewing is highly recommended, as similar period properties in this village have proven extremely popular.
