NOTE

This property is located in the small hamlet of Binfield Heath, approx. 4 miles north of Caversham & Reading and approx. 3 miles to the south-west of Henley on Thames. There is an excellent opportunity to completely extend and enlarge the property subject to the necessary planning permissions through South Oxfordshire District Council. Neighbouring the house is the attractive thatched Bottle & Glass Inn.

It is believed to have been built in the 1950's with a further rear extension added some time later and the house is characterised by the amount of large windows offering lovely views over open farmland and fields. This area is popular with walking and cycling enthusiasts with trails nearby.

The house is served by Calor gas, has a septic tank and includes solar panel tubes on the roof which assist with heating the water. The house is cavity wall insulated.
