BACKGROUND

This Edwardian home is situated in a desirable private road location, and has undergone extensive improvements by the current owners over the last eighteen months. Externally the property has had a new roof, high-quality windows and top specification security doors installed. Inside there is a redesigned kitchen, with hand painted cabinets and top-of-the-range Siemens appliances, a newly fitted en-suite and family Bathroom, both with superb suites. The loft has been professionally converted to provide two second floor rooms, which offer a variety of uses to complement the rest of the home. In addition, the property has been re-wired and has a new central heating system

A truly quality home in an easily accessible position ideal for the growing family and within striking distance of Caversham centre, mainline station and Reading beyond
