Freemans Close
Seasalter Whitstable

Property Description

This charming three bedroom semi-detached house located on Freemans Way in Seasalter offers the perfect opportunity for those looking for a spacious and versatile family home with brilliant scope to add value to!

As you enter the property, you are greeted by a spacious and airy hallway that leads to the warm and inviting living room. The fully equipped kitchen and dining room sit at the rear to the property, both are of a great size with their dining room being large enough to create two separate rooms, offering an ideal space for entertaining guests.

Upstairs, you will find three generous double bedrooms, each with its own unique character and style complemented by plenty of storage space. The family bathroom is also located on this level and comes complete with a fitted three piece suite.

The property benefits from a well-maintained garden to the rear, providing ample space for outdoor activities and entertainment with the added benefit of a substantial summer house to the side. To the front of the property is off street parking for two cars in addition to the detached garage and generous front garden.
