Property Description

Connells are delighted to present to the market this Three/Four Bedroom Chalet Bungalow in the quiet and secluded cul-de-sac of Edmund Street, Wingham!

With a substantial plot and breathtaking views, this home offers a spacious accommodation comprising of an open plan kitchen/dining area to the rear which leads out to the conservatory overlooking the garden. This area also benefits from planning permission for a single storey extension which would allow for an even more substantial living area to the rear. To the front of the property are one of the double bedrooms, a separate snug/fourth bedroom and the main bathroom whilst to the first floor is the primary bedroom with en-suite facilities and fantastic views stretching across the garden and surrounding countryside, in addition to the third bedroom.

Externally the home boasts a generous plot which wraps around the south side of the property, with off street parking for multiple cars to the front and a practical rear garden which gives fantastic views of the surrounding fields and countryside. The area is perfect for dog walkers or those who enjoy exploring forests and fields alike!
