Property Description

A good size semi-detached family home, offering comfortable accommodation and a larger than average rear garden. On the ground floor there is a cosy lounge, a convenient cloakroom, a modern fitted kitchen/diner with patio doors to the garden and an optional fourth bedroom/ home office. To the first floor are three double bedrooms one of which has an en suite and a spacious family bathroom/wc. The house has gas fired central heating, double glazed windows.

Externally there is a large rear garden with two patio areas each end of the garden, as well as a large lawn and a side access gate.

The garden also features a substantial outbuilding with power and ethernet that could be used as a home office or additional living space.

The front of the property there is ample parking space.

Hersden has easy access to the Cathedral City of Canterbury and the surrounding countryside offers good walking and cycling. Canterbury offers a comprehensive range of shopping and leisure facilities, an impressive number of primary and secondary schools including two nearby grammar schools and a selection of colleges and universities. High speed rail services are available from Canterbury west station to London St. Pancras with an approximate journey time of 55 mins. The M2 to London and A2 to Dover are both easily accessible.
