"Heated swimming pool, secret bookshelf door and high end finishing throughout!" Presenting a stunning detached property in the charming setting of Higham Ferrers, this immaculately modernised residence offers luxurious living spaces and sophisticated features. Boasting a total of four first floor double bedrooms and a hidden fifth ground floor double bedroom/further reception room accessed via a secret bookshelf door, this property not only exudes elegance and contemporary design but provides what can only be described as the X factor to anyone fortunate enough to view this family home.

The interior showcases a seamless blend of modern architecture, highlighted by the wooden staircase with glass balustrades and motion sensor skirting board lighting, a living room with modern log burner linked to a carrying system providing additional heating to all bedrooms and a dining room with a feature abstract stone wall. The property also boasts a refitted kitchen and a refitted en-suite bathroom, family bathroom and ground floor cloakroom.

Step outside to a tranquil low maintenance garden with a waterfall wall and a heated swimming pool with a swim current machine, all creating a private oasis perfect for relaxation and entertainment. With parking for several cars, a conservatory open plan to the living room, and proximity to Rushden Lakes, the market square, schools, and picturesque countryside, this property presents a rare opportunity to own a simply stunning home that cannot fail to impress.
