

57 Park Avenue
Rushden, NN10 9NP

Simpson & Weekley

Set on the sought after 'Park Avenue' in Rushden is this extended, bay fronted detached family home. The bay fronted residence has been well maintained over recent years and sits on a generous plot providing a garden perfect for family living and parking to the front leading to a single garage. Internally the spacious entrance hall is entered from a double glazed porch and comes with a stained glass window and door, stairs to the first floor and doors to a lounge, sitting room with an open plan access to the dining room and an extended kitchen breakfast room. The open first floor landing currently doubles up as a study area, there is a family shower room, separate wc and three bedrooms. We believe this homely property would make a perfect home for any growing family with parks, schools, shops and a gymnasium all within walking distance. EPC Rating D, Council Tax Band E
