Property Description

THE PROPERTY

Streete Court is a unique setting of individual, architecturally pleasing conversions, set within beautiful lawned and wooded communal gardens. The original building opened as a school in 1894 by the father of A.A Milne of Winnie the Pooh fame. The property has been thoughtfully separated into quality dwellings with a wealth of original features remaining. Comprising entrance hallway, spacious well-planned kitchen, utility lobby, downstairs shower room and WC plus the spacious lounge with high ceilings, attractive beams, inglenook fireplace and French doors opening to the garden. On the first floor two double bedrooms plus a spacious family bathroom with attractive panelling. Bedroom three is a good double and set on the second floor into the eaves. The property oozes character but has the modern convenience of gas central heating and modern fittings. There is a private garden to the rear that opens to the communal grounds. There is one allocated parking space plus communal visitors' spaces.
