The property is located above the 20th floor and benefits from a secure underground parking space, whilst boasting 937 sq. ft. of internal living space, with an additional private terrace boasting South Westerly views over Canary Wharf & the City of London. Mature design aesthetic creates elegant open-plan living spaces; floor-to-ceiling windows make the most of the panoramic views, whilst generously proportioned bedrooms have spectacular views and adjoining hotel styled bathrooms. The kitchen is of particular high quality, with stone worktops, marble splashback and fitted appliances including coffee machines.

This development emphasises on privacy, being protected from the outside world in an exclusive, beautifully landscaped water environment that personifies seclusion, peace and tranquillity. Adding further to the sense of exclusivity.
