Parkmead, London, SW15

Built in 1924 this magnificent house, built by William Willett Ltd of Sloane Square, is presented to the market for the first time in 60 years. Situated close to the Heath, on one of Putney's most exclusive residential roads, the property occupies a generous plot and subject to the necessary consents could be significantly enlarged to provide additional family accommodation.

The house enjoys off street parking and an attractive lawned garden to the front and an established ornamental 100ft south facing garden to the rear.

Parkmead is located within the Dover House Conservation Area offering its residents easy access to the green open spaces of Putney Heath, access to a number of highly regarded schools and travel routes in and out of London.
