40 Beaulands Close is a first-floor apartment occupying a quiet corner position within this well-maintained and green riverside development in the De Freville conservation area. The apartment has been fully refurbished in recent years and enjoys far-reaching views across communal gardens towards the river Cam.

The accommodation comprises an entrance hall, sitting/dining room with a double-glazed corner window and wall mounted shelving, a modern kitchen well-equipped with a matching range of handleless units and drawers with quartz worktops, inset sink, inset electric hob with extractor fan above, electric oven, space and plumbing for additional freestanding appliances and a double-glazed window. A built-in cupboard houses a pressurized hot-water cylinder. There is a spacious double bedroom with two double-glazed windows and built-in wardrobe. The bathroom is refitted with a modern white three-piece suite incorporating a shower over the bath.

The development is accessed via a remote-controlled barrier located at the end of de Freville Avenue. There are well-maintained communal gardens for residents and guests to enjoy. There is an allocated parking space adjacent to the block within a small parking area.

Location

The site is on the northern side of the river Cam in a highly regarded residential area near Midsummer Common and the towpath giving access to Stourbridge Common and open countryside. Cambridge North railway station and the Science Park are within easy reach, as is the city centre by foot or bicycle across Jesus Green. There are local shops at Mitcham's Corner/Chesterton Road including a bakery and supermarket as well as several cafés, restaurants and pubs.
