4 first floor double bedrooms – large landing/play area – first floor family bathroom – large kitchen/breakfast area opening to a living/dining area – sitting room – utility area – ground floor shower room – family room/study – separate staircases – entrance hall – large contemporary studio/home working space – established front and rear gardens – off-street parking

This imposing red brick family home, stands detached, set back from the road, behind broad and well-screened frontage on Queen Edith's Way. The property has been significantly extended, renovated and remodelled to create expansive open plan living spaces with garden views and lots of natural light, alongside a separate, versatile wing providing a self-contained arrangement. The property is within striking distance of Addenbrooke's Hospital, The Biomedical Campus and a choice of outstanding schools and sixth form colleges.

The property is approached via a deep, sweeping driveway, which provides ample off-street parking and leads to two separate entrance points and gated rear access to private gardens.

The main reception hall with a porch has a staircase leading to the first floor and access to the sitting room. The principal living/dining space comprises three connecting areas, which include a broad kitchen/breakfast room with extensive storage options and working surfaces, a range of integrated appliances and provisions to add a large central island. A deep, full-width family/dining space benefits from three large skylights and extensive rear glazing, which provides access to and complete views of established gardens. A sitting room completes this impressive area. An enclosed utility area has provisions in place to convert to a kitchenette and is located close to the ground floor shower room, hallway with second staircase rising to the first-floor accommodation and study/bedroom five Upstairs, there are four spacious double bedrooms, a large play/study area, a refitted family bathroom and separate WC. Bedrooms one, two and three all provide built-in wardrobe space.

Outside, there is a large, established rear garden with wrap-around patio area, lawn, mature trees and shrubs and a well-constructed modern studio, which is fully insulated and provides ample power supply and lighting.

Location

Queen Edith's Way enjoys a convenient position, close to Addenbrooke's Hospital, about 1.5 miles south of the railway station and 2 miles from the city centre. The area is widely acknowledged as one of Cambridge's most popular and prestigious residential areas south of the city. There are an excellent range of local facilities including day-to-day shops on Wulfstan Way.

Schooling is available at the 'Outstanding' Spinney Primary School and Queen Edith's Primary School with secondary provision at Netherhall, Ofsted rated 'good'. Hills Road (1.3 miles) and Long Road (1 mile) Sixth Form Colleges. There are also excellent private schools such as The Perse, Leys and others are also within easy reach of the property.

Queen Edith's Way is very popular with people who work at the Addenbrooke's site and those who appreciate its balance of giving ease of access into the city without feeling too urban, plus its strong sense of community.
