This exceptional family home is located at the end of an attractive no-through road in Newnham and stands semi-detached, adjoining beautiful natural surroundings, rarely found within the city boundary. This broad and imposing 1930s house has been the subject of a full and exhaustive modernisation, expansion and renovation program. The end result is first class and provides extensive and well adapted accommodation finished to a high specification, which combines a creative, contemporary interior design with all the charm and character of a period home.

The property occupies a peaceful, semi-rural location adjoining countryside walks to Grantchester Meadows, the river and the Cocks and Hens Cambridge Tennis Club. Independent shops in Newnham, outstanding schools and the historic city centre are all within a short walk.

The impressive reception hall has been extended to create lots of natural light. Ample concealed storage space has been added to this area and there is a useful WC. The charming and beautifully presented sitting room benefits from dual aspects, replacement hardwood windows with bespoke shuttering, a large decorative fireplace with inset woodburning stove, attractive oak flooring, picture rails and original plaster coving. The principal reception area is an impressive open plan space with extensive glazing and oak flooring, made up of three main areas. The beautiful and well-equipped kitchen has a matching range of handmade solid wood cabinets and drawers, marble working surfaces with a bullnose edge detail, double Belfast sink, a range oven with extractor hood over, integrated dishwasher and central Island unit with a solid ash worktop and additional storage and breakfast bar overhang. The dining/family/study area enjoys a high degree of natural light, complete views of the garden and surroundings beyond, with access to a large outside terrace area via tri-folding doors. There is a cosy semi-open sitting room with woodburning stove, picture rails and plaster coving. A useful utility room providing additional storage space and plumbing for freestanding appliances completes the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, the first-floor landing leads to a modern family bathroom suite with a separate walk-in shower, a separate WC and three immaculately presented and spacious bedrooms. The second floor level comprises a wonderful principal bedroom suite with vaulted ceiling and seating area enjoying far reaching views across Cambridge Rugby Club's playing pitch. A modern shower room is accessed from the landing area, which provides ample built-in storage.

Outside, a beautifully designed, enclosed front garden provides established screening and access to wide, side area which provides secure storage sheds, bicycle storage and open log store. There is an outside power supply which could be adapted to an electric charging point. There is a delightful and private rear garden, which benefits from mature planting including a variety of trees and established shrubs planted to borders in front of attractive woven willow fencing. There is a detached eco-friendly garden studio with wildflower roof and large kitchen garden.

Location

Fulbrooke Road is situated off Grantchester Road, in a quiet part of the highly regarded Newnham Village approximately 1 mile west of the city centre. There is a good selection of local amenities in Newnham itself including award winning butcher, co-op, bakers with coffee shop, pharmacy and primary school. Secondary and private schooling for all ages groups are available in the city. The city centre, colleges and various university departments can be reached by foot or bicycle via The Backs. Grantchester Meadows and Lammas Land are both within walking distance.
