- Mid-terraced house
- Private driveway
- Gas-fired heating to radiators
- EPC – C / 71

This smart three bedroom mid-terraced house dates from the mid-1960s and has been subject to a complete renovation over the last 12 months. Aside from new flooring, kitchen and bathrooms, the house has been re-plastered and rewired, has a brand new boiler and radiators throughout.

The property has been thoughtfully designed with open-plan, modern living in mind and offers an impressive kitchen/living/dining room area, benefitting from a dual aspect and plenty of natural light. The kitchen itself has been fitted with a contemporary range of base and eye-level units and includes a breakfast bar. There are a number of integrated and freestanding appliances, all of which are included within the sale. The garage has been converted into a utility room with additional fitted units and access to a refitted cloakroom W.C. Newly fitted garage doors open onto a driveway.

Upstairs are three good-sized bedrooms, the principal bedroom including a refitted ensuite shower room, complemented by attractive tiling. There is a large landing providing loft access and completing the accommodation is a refitted bathroom with a heated towel rail, and a stylish oval wash hand basin with oak plinth and custom-made storage below.

Outside, the front of the property is set back behind a well-manicured lawned garden and driveway providing off road parking for up to two vehicles. The rear garden measures 38ft (11.5m) x 18ft (5.48m) and offers a good degree of privacy. There is a paved terrace and the remainder is laid to lawn, the whole is enclosed by fencing.

Location

Cliveden Close is a quiet road situated just off Tavistock Road approximately 1.5 miles from the city centre enjoying a range of local amenities nearby including local shops, pharmacy and petrol station. There is also a regular bus service on Histon Road and main road links include the A14 (linking to the A11/M11) just 1 mile away.
