This elegant Victorian house has been extended and much improved in recent years, with works including, but not limited to, newly restored and double-glazed sash windows, rear extension at ground and first floor level, plus a loft conversion more recently. The property is conveniently located on a quiet, sought-after road, a short walk from the city centre and a stone's throw from Midsummer Common and the River Cam.

The property enters into the spacious living/dining room, which has a dual aspect, fitted shelving alongside the chimney breasts and stairs to the first floor with storage under. At the rear, there is a superbly extended kitchen/breakfast room which enjoys a wealth of light courtesy of south and west facing windows, including floor to ceiling windows and doors at the rear, providing views of and access to the garden. The kitchen has a tiled floor and is fitted with a range of stylish base and wall units with wooden work surfaces and integrated appliances including double oven and gas hob with extractor hood over, space for fridge/freezer, and plumbing for dishwasher and washing machine. The property also benefits from a cloakroom with WC.

On the first floor, there are 3 bedrooms, two of which include fitted wardrobes, with the extended rear bedroom featuring a Juliet balcony and Keylite roof window. There is the original Victorian fireplace and mantelpiece in the master bedroom. Mainly tiled, the family bathroom is fitted with a 3-pc suite including paneled bath with mains shower over, vanity unit with wash basin, WC, heated towel rail and roof window. On the second (top) floor, there is a further double bedroom with dual aspect, Juliet balcony, storage eaves, fitted wardrobe and an en suite shower room with wash basin and WC.

Outside, a shared, gated passageway provides pedestrian access to the delightful, west-facing rear garden. It is well-established and mainly laid to lawn, with patio area, shrub borders and a timber summerhouse/store with sheltered decking.

Location

Local shopping 150 yards, city centre (Market Square) 0.5 miles, railway station 1.25 miles (Liverpool Street from 60 minutes, King's Cross from 49 minutes). Parsonage Street is a quiet, highly sought-after and convenient residential no-through road adjoining Midsummer Common, within easy walking distance of the historic city centre. The property also falls within the catchment for St Matthew's Primary School and Parkside Community College, which have achieved Ofsted ratings of 'good' and 'outstanding', respectively.
