Location

Shepreth is one of South Cambridgeshire's most picturesque spots surrounded by undulating countryside, tucked away just off the A10 and comparatively unspoilt in recent years by any major development schemes. Cambridge is 8 miles and Royston is about 5 miles distant and there is a bus service that runs to both from the village. The mainline train station offers fast access to Cambridge and London King's Cross. The completion of the Cambridge South Station in 2026, will mean that Addenbrooke's and The Biomedical Campus will be reached in approximately 10/15 minutes. The M11 is also just a short drive away. Educational facilities are available at nearby Barrington and Melbourn. Shepreth Wildlife Park is a great attraction for families and there are also three public houses within a 15 minute walk of the property; The Green Man at Frog End, The Plough on the High Street and The Royal Oak in Barrington as well as Hot Numbers roastery in the village. There are a number of walks from your doorstep including a lovely walk across fields to the picturesque village of Barrington.
