32 Lyndewode Road is a handsome, late Victorian, semi-detached residence with a grand bay-fronted facade and double bays to the rear. The property occupies a privileged prime central location, moments from Cambridge Station and benefits from a broad plot with a south-facing rear garden and a driveway leading to garaging.

The property provides extensive accommodation over three floors, retaining fine period features, offering excellent scope for expansion, alteration and modernisation.

The accommodation comprises a reception hall, a large and well-proportioned sitting room with a bay window and a working fireplace connecting to a generous dining room with access to a private, outside courtyard. A morning/storage room houses a recently replaced boiler and opens to a well-equipped, triple aspect kitchen/dining room with access to the rear garden. A WC completes the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, a first-floor landing leads to two large double bedrooms with bay windows and period fireplaces, a third double bedroom, bathroom and a separate WC.

The second-floor level comprises two double bedrooms with extensive eaves storage space, a single bedroom/study and bathroom suite.

Outside, a small walled garden has mature planting to provide privacy from the road. A long driveway leads to a detached, block-built garage and a mature south-facing rear garden. The garden has a variety of fruit trees, which include pear, apple and quince. A tiled courtyard area adjacent to the house has a large fig tree. There is a covered area in the garden, which is ideal for bicycle and wood storage.
