St Michael

Whether you are looking for a contemporary permanent seaside home or a virtually maintenance free holiday and weekend retreat, this delightful chalet bungalow could be the answer. It is located not far from St Margaret's Bay along a restricted byway private road maintained by the residents that only leads to fields and woodland and was designed and built by the current owners in 2006 to their own unique design on the footprint of a previous bungalow.

The property is approached through an entrance to a block paved in and out carriage driveway surrounding a charming gravel based brick raised front garden area and delightful shrubs and trees. It leads to a pair of tall solid wood gates that open into a carport and through to the garage. The attractive front façade includes varied roof lines, brick pattered eaves with barge boards and bay windows as well as a covered porch leading to the arched front door. This opens into a lobby and the spacious entrance hall with engineered oak flooring that covers most of the ground floor and underfloor heating that flows throughout the property as well as a mirrored cupboard with control systems and an oak staircase to the galleried landing.

There is a family shower room and a dual aspect double bedroom with built in wardrobes and another dual aspect study/fourth bedroom with fitted cupboards. This room overlooks the front drive and would be usefully located if you work from home since business visitors would not need to venture into the private part of the home.

The well-designed kitchen/breakfast room features stone flooring, attractive units with granite worktops housing an induction hob, built in oven and combi microwave as well as an integrated fridge freezer. There is a peninsular breakfast bar with plenty of additional storage cupboards and a stable door to the courtyard style kitchen garden and barbecue area as well as a utility room with laundry facilities and access to the carport.

You will enjoy spending time in the delightful light and bright single storey, dual aspect lounge/diner with a high vaulted ceiling, Velux windows and doors opening onto the beautifully designed and very secluded rear garden and, as an extra delight, it features an archway to a charming bar area.

On the first floor the galleried landing includes a wall of fitted storage cupboards and access to two double bedrooms including a guest room with an ensuite shower and the lovely principal suite with far reaching views over the surrounding countryside, fitted bedroom furniture including cupboards, drawers and a dressing table as well as an ensuite bathroom with a double shower and a vanity basin.

You can revel in al fresco dining on the spacious rear terrace that continues round to the courtyard area and is bordered by raised brick flower beds and leads down to a lawn with a fascinating central feature incorporating gravel beds with shrubs and a water feature. There is also a summerhouse and a potting shed as well as a wooden gazebo providing plenty of places to enjoy the great outdoors even when the weather is inclement. While a trellis archway leads to a secluded sunken garden surrounded by hedging.

Seller Insight

We loved creating this charming home and are proud of what we have achieved. The aim was to build something that was very low maintenance but highly energy efficient. This has been proven by the fact that we have never had to repaint the exterior or the internal walls and we have 14 solar panels with back up batteries to keep our energy bills to a minimum. But it is time to start a new chapter in our lives and pass the baton on to new owners.

The location is wonderful because it is so peaceful living along a private cul de sac with no through traffic except the occasional horse. St Margaret's provides everything you might need on a daily basis and includes a post office, village shop, doctor's surgery, pubs, restaurants and cafes, while we have a bus stop at the end of the road with buses going to Dover and Deal. There are plenty of places to go for walks along the famous White Cliffs of Dover including a stroll to the South Foreland Lighthouse – the first ever lighthouse in the world to have electric light! Much of the surrounding land has been owned by the National Trust since 1974 so will never be built on.

The village also has a wide range of societies and clubs including bowls, tennis, cricket and football as well as a history and horticultural society and amateur dramatics. For youngsters there are scout, guide and brownie troops as well as two riding stables and a primary school rated Outstanding by Ofsted. While Dover, Folkestone, Sandwich, Thanet and Canterbury have excellent grammar schools, many rated Outstanding by Ofsted and top class private schools are also available in the surrounding towns.

It is not far to Dover and Folkestone for immediate access to the Continent and beyond, while the high speed train from Martin Mill mainline station can whisk commuters to St Pancras within about an hour and a quarter and even less from Dover Priory. It is only a short drive to the lovely town of Deal with its seafront, individual shops, historic pier, bars and restaurants while the City of Canterbury, with its high street stores, independent shops, theatres, schools, universities and historic buildings is within easy reach. For golfing aficionados there is the Walmer & Kingsdown golf club and slightly further afield are famous championship links courses including the Royal St Georges and Princes in Sandwich and Royal Cinque Ports at Deal. Sailing enthusiasts can enjoy their sport through the Royal Cinque Ports Sailing club out of Dover.

St Margaret's Bay has long been a magnet for famous names. Miriam Margolyes has a holiday home here while Lord Byron, Peter Ustinov, Noel Coward and Ian Fleming were among its past illustrious residents. Indeed it is said that '007' was named after the number of the local bus! When you visit the village, you can understand why these well-known luminaries picked this special place to spend time in. You can stroll down to the bay and enjoy a drink at the famous Coastguard Inn or wander into the village for a meal at The Smugglers or go slightly further afield to the Lantern Inn in nearby Martin."
