🏠 EPC Rating D

A fantastic, centrally located one bedroom apartment with parking situated within a wonderful converted period property.

This ground floor apartment is accessed via the formal front entrance to Awdry house and through the reception hall. Accommodation comprises internal entrance hall with storage cupboard housing a washing machine and side external access. There is an open plan kitchen/living room with period sash windows, oven and hob and integrated fridge/freezer.

The double bedroom is a good size with en-suite bathroom with shower over. The property further benefits from enjoying a central town location within walking distance of the train station and the town's amenities and benefits from having off street parking plus gas fired central heating.

Available end November, unfurnished, £850pcm (sorry no pets).
