This distinguished home occupies a sought-after position within the prestigious Holland Park development, a landmark project by Heritage Homes known for its contemporary architecture, quality construction, and focus on sustainability. Designed with an emphasis on light, space, and efficiency, the property is awarded an 'A' rated EPC and incorporates solar panels to support modern living. Beautifully presented interiors are complemented by landscaped gardens, a spacious garage with electric vehicle charging point, and ample driveway parking.

Detached Property | Three Bedrooms | Open Plan Kitchen/Dining/Sitting Room | Orangery/Sunroom | Family Bathroom | Utility Room | Spacious Garage | Beautiful Gardens | An 'A' Rated EPC

DESCRIPTION

The property presents an inviting frontage, with a pathway bordered by lawns and colourful beds of flowering plants and shrubs leading to a sheltered storm porch and the main entrance. The reception hall creates an immediate sense of quality, featuring tiled flooring with underfloor heating, a cloakroom fitted with contemporary sanitaryware, and a useful storage cupboard.

The ground floor accommodation flows seamlessly in an open-plan arrangement, maximising both natural light and views across the gardens. The sitting area is dual aspect, with a generous sense of proportion, and connects directly to the dining space. The kitchen is thoughtfully positioned and presented in a sleek contemporary style, with streamlined white cabinetry, striking black quartz worktops, and an inset sink with 'boiling' hot water tap, placed to take in views across the rear garden. A distinctive feature is the wall of blue larder units with a Neff oven and microwave positioned at eye level, providing both a design statement and practical convenience. A utility room with external access extends the kitchen's functionality, housing additional appliances and storage. From the main living space, sliding doors open to a sun room where full-height glazing creates a natural link with the garden. Bi-folding doors extend onto a wide patio, drawing the outside in and enhancing the home's sense of space and flow. Upstairs, a wide landing with airing cupboard gives access to three bedrooms.

The principal suite enjoys a dual aspect outlook, fitted wardrobes, and a stylish en suite shower room with walk-in enclosure, wall-hung vanity, and WC. The second bedroom is generously proportioned and overlooks the garden, while the third bedroom is also of a good size. The family bathroom is finished to a high standard, featuring an elegant freestanding oval bath, a separate double shower cubicle, and contemporary wall-hung fittings set against part-tiled limestone effect walls.

GARDEN & GROUNDS

The landscaped gardens complement the house beautifully. To the front, twin lawns are separated by a central pathway and framed by mature borders filled with a variety of seasonal planting. The rear garden has been designed with both structure and softness, beginning with a broad patio that stretches across the width of the house, accessed from the sun room's bi-fold doors. From here, the garden opens onto a level lawn, bordered with well-stocked beds that bring colour and texture throughout the year, from here there is access down the side of the property to the front garden and a pathway links the garden to a side gate, leading towards the driveway and garage. The garage itself is notably spacious and an electric vehicle charging point can be found outside the garage doorway. The overall setting is carefully balanced, combining a sense of greenery with a practical layout.

LOCATION

The Green is one of Exeter's most desirable residential settings, known for its carefully planned environment and high-quality homes. The property is ideally placed to enjoy both the tranquillity of the development and the convenience of its excellent connections. Within a short and level walk lies Newcourt Railway Station, offering regular services into Exeter city centre, Topsham, and Exmouth, as well as onward links to the national rail network. Road communications are equally strong, with the nearby M5 and A30 providing swift access to the wider South West and the Devon coastline. Exeter Airport is also close at hand for national and international travel. Local amenities are plentiful, with the Rydon Lane Retail Park offering an array of shopping facilities, while Exeter's city centre, with its historic cathedral, vibrant high street, lies just a short distance away. The area is also well served for education, with an excellent choice of primary and secondary schools, and of course the University of Exeter, ranked among the UK's leading institutions. Recreational opportunities are first-class: Exeter Golf and Country Club is nearby, providing leisure, fitness, and dining facilities. Riverside Valley Park offers miles of scenic walking and cycling routes, connecting to the city's historic quay and onward to the River Exe Estuary Trail. The nearby town of Topsham, with its boutique shops, cafes, and waterside setting, is another highlight, while Dart's Farm provides a renowned food, lifestyle, and shopping destination.
