Set in the heart of picturesque Horndon-on-the-Hill, this stylish two-bedroom ground floor maisonette blends comfort, practicality and village charm in a way that feels instantly “move-in ready.” Step into the generous L-shaped entrance hall—big enough to actually function as a hallway, not just a corridor—and you’re met with a bright reception room perfect for cosy nights in or casual entertaining.

The well-fitted kitchen offers modern units, fitted appliances and a handy side door, making everything from cooking to carrying in the shopping wonderfully easy. Both bedrooms are well proportioned and filled with natural light, while the contemporary bathroom features a modern white suite and part-tiled finish—clean, simple, and exactly how you want it.

Outside, you’ll love the private front garden (hello cuppa-in-the-sun moments), with the added bonus of potential for off-street parking (STPC). The rear drying areas keep laundry life practical without stealing your outdoor space, and the garage in a nearby block delivers secure parking or that long-awaited “proper storage” solution we all dream of.

Offered with no onward chain, a 900-year lease and share of the freehold, this property is the definition of stress-free ownership—with A13 access just minutes away

Horndon-on-the-Hill is a gem of an Essex village—full of character, community, and charm. With its 13th-century Grade I listed Church of St Peter and St Paul, two popular pubs (The Swan and The Bell), a well-regarded primary school, recreational park, village store, post office and butchers, it’s a place where life feels pleasantly grounded. Think friendly faces, easy walks, and a proper sense of belonging.

Commuters can rejoice too: with excellent access to the A13, you’re well connected without sacrificing that sought-after village lifestyle. Listed in the Domesday Book as Hornindune, the area blends deep history with everyday convenience—old soul, modern comforts.
