Stunning 4/5-bed family home on Princes Avenue, fully refurbished with flair. Spacious, stylish, and backing onto open fields with glorious views – the perfect mix of wow-factor and countryside calm.

Behind secure gates, the property opens with an inviting entrance hallway leading to a wonderful, full-width lounge, a versatile playroom / potential ground-floor bedroom, and a stunning bespoke kitchen/diner perfectly designed for modern family living. A stylish ground-floor WC completes the level.

The first floor offers three generous bedrooms and a luxuriously finished family bathroom, while the second floor provides an additional bright and spacious bedroom, ideal as a teenager's suite or dedicated home office.

To the rear, the property truly excels with a superb garden of excellent size, enjoying tranquil field views and featuring a large games room/outbuilding—perfect as a home bar, gym, studio or workspace. The front driveway is equally impressive, providing gated off-street parking for multiple vehicles.

A rare opportunity to acquire a turn-key family home in a highly sought-after location, combining generous living space, premium finishes and idyllic surroundings.

Nestled within the much-loved Old Corringham, Princes Avenue offers a charming blend of village appeal and modern convenience. This peaceful pocket is known for its friendly community, leafy streets and excellent access to open green spaces—perfect for families, dog walkers and anyone who appreciates a quieter pace of life.

Residents enjoy easy reach to a range of local shops, cosy cafés and traditional pubs, while well-regarded primary and secondary schools make the area especially popular with families. For commuters, Stanford-le-Hope and surrounding transport links offer straightforward routes into London and beyond.

With its blend of character, convenience and countryside views, Old Corringham delivers that ideal “best of both worlds” lifestyle—calm, connected and consistently in demand.
