GUIDE PRICE £375,000 - £400,000

Extended family home moments from the station, offering direct London links, St Cleres catchment, bright living spaces and a generous garden perfect for entertaining, relaxing and modern family life.

Swipe right on Prospect Avenue — the Stanford-le-Hope hotspot serving big-city convenience and suburban tranquillity. Just moments (yes, actual moments) from Stanford-le-Hope station, you can be whisked straight to London Fenchurch Street before your coffee cools.

Set in the sought-after St Cleres School catchment, this extended home delivers the space you've been manifesting — while still flexing a seriously impressive rear garden perfect for summer parties, veggie patches or just humble-bragging on Instagram.

And just when you thought it couldn't get any easier, this home arrives with NO ONWARD CHAIN, meaning your move could be as smooth as your best TikTok transition. Add in the bonus of off-street parking, giving you stress-free arrivals and zero circling-the-block energy, and you've got convenience dialled up to the max — both on the driveway and in the moving process.

Inside, modern living meets family comfort with modern cloakroom; outside, the garden goes on and on like your favourite Netflix binge. Whether you're a commuter, creator, or garden-lounger extraordinaire, this home is primed for your next chapter.

Stanford-le-Hope offers a charming mix of village-style community with unbeatable transport links. With its thriving high street, green spaces, great schools, and fast access to London, it's ideal for families and commuters seeking lifestyle balance.
