Set back on Liddell Drive, Basildon, this beautifully presented two-bedroom semi-detached coach house proves that great things really do come in stylish packages.

Step inside and you're greeted by a welcoming entrance hallway that leads through to a fantastic open-plan lounge/diner — the perfect spot for Netflix nights, dinner parties or simply stretching out and relaxing. There's even a large storage cupboard, because clutter-free living is always in style.

The well-appointed kitchen is both practical and sleek, while the home is completed by a beautifully finished family bathroom and two generous bedrooms, ideal for restful nights, home working or guests who "might just stay over".

Outside, the perks keep coming with allocated parking and an impressively large private storage room — perfect for bikes, boxes and tools.

Location-wise, it's a commuter's dream with excellent A127 access, keeping you well connected while still enjoying a peaceful residential setting.

Stylish, smart and superbly located — this is coach house living done right.

Liddell Drive, Basildon is set within a popular residential location offering the perfect balance of everyday convenience and excellent commuter links. The area benefits from a wide range of local shops, supermarkets and leisure facilities, with Basildon town centre close by providing further retail, dining and entertainment options.

For commuters, easy access to the A127 ensures swift road links towards London and surrounding Essex towns, while Basildon mainline station offers regular services into London Fenchurch Street.

Green spaces, parks and recreational facilities are also nearby, making the area ideal for both relaxed weekends and active lifestyles. A practical yet well-connected setting, Liddell Drive continues to be a popular choice for buyers seeking convenience without compromise.
