Situation

Stoke Abbott is a pretty country village approximately two miles from Beaminster and seven miles from Bridport surrounded by undulating countryside in an area designated as being of "outstanding natural beauty" The village comprises mainly character cottages and larger houses with only a few modern properties and we understand from West Dorset District Council that any future development will be carefully controlled. Amenities include a church, village hall and public house. The nearest town of Beaminster has a fine range of shops, churches, a library, two schools, health centres, other professional services and many social organisations and sporting facilities.
