SITUATION

The property is situated in a rural location within the park land of the former 18th Century house, Frampton Court, which was demolished in the 1930's to pay outstanding taxes. The setting of the property within the 18th century parkland provides the opportunity for a tenant to live in a peaceful and rural setting away from the hustle and bustle of day to day life.

Frampton is only a short distance from the village of Maiden Newton which is well served by local amenities including a selection of shops, first school, doctor's surgery, petrol station with store, public house, restaurant and village hall.

Dorchester, the County Town of Dorset, is 7 miles away and provides a range of facilities, the Dorset County Hospital and train stations to London Waterloo and Bristol.
