THE DWELLING

South Annings lies to the centre of the popular village of Burton Bradstock in a small development of local houses within walking distance of Hive Beach. The property has Portland stone elevations under a tiled roof, is in need of refurbishment and has in the past been granted planning permission for a substantial two-story extension to the rear. There is enormous potential.

ACCOMODATION

To the front of the property there is a good sitting room centred around a stone fireplace equipped with wood-burning stove which leads through to the dining room and a kitchen. The kitchen is equipped with a comprehensive range of units and cupboards. In addition, downstairs there is a cloakroom. Upstairs there are two bedrooms which are equally spacious served by a bathroom. Downstairs the floors are laid to a mixture of laminate and ceramic tile, there is gas fired central heating with the boiler located in the roof and UPVC double glazing.

OUTSIDE

To the front of the property there is a hard stand providing off-street parking for a single car besides which there is a useful storage shed that could be removed to create a second parking space. Steps to lead down to the front door besides which there is area of timber decking. To the rear of the property there is a substantial garden with a second decked terrace by the house with the main body of the garden laid to lawn and a hard stand to the end.

SITUATION

Burton Bradstock is a conservation village having an abundance of charming stone and thatch properties. It is an active village with a number of amenities including a general store, post office, public houses, village school, library, petrol station and a regular bus service. The surrounding countryside is designated as being an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty with a recently acclaimed World Heritage Coastline either owned or controlled by the National Trust. Within walking distance to Hive Beach.
